Security Horizon Announces New Sales Director

Colorado Springs, CO – November 22, 2010 – Security Horizon, Inc. announces a new addition to the team. Ross Schaulis has joined as the Sales Director. Ross has more than 28 years experience in the IT industry and possesses a broad range of skill sets that have served him well throughout his career. Prior to joining Security Horizon he served as a Service Engineer, Unix Administrator, Systems Administration Consultant, Clearcase Administrator and Consultant Manager. Ross has enjoyed the last ten years of his career as a Sales Engineer for a large, international IT company.

“We are excited to have Ross join our team”, stated Brian Kirouac, Vice-President of Security Horizon. “First and foremost, it is Security Horizon’s responsibility to ensure our customers and partners continue to experience excellent support. We believe adding Ross's expertise and dedication will ensure a consistent quality experience for our customers and future growth for our company.”
