

Your global information security experts

What can Security Horizon do for you?

Our specialized security services are founded on the knowledge and experience of our professional services staff.

We work to establish a strategic relationship with our clients and partners to better understand your business objectives and mission, enabling us to define and implement security solutions customized to your needs. Our goal is to assist organizations in protecting critical information, reputation and brand. From comprehensive security assessments through implementation we can provide you with the most complete and fiscally responsible security solution available on the market.

A sampling of services provided by Security Horizon:

- PCI compliance
- Information Security Assessment Methodology (ISAM) and Information Security Red Team Methodology (ISRM) courses
- Comprehensive technical and organizational assessments based on the ISAM
- Network architecture security review and/or development
- Perimeter security analysis and/or design
- Counter espionage support (bug sweeping)
- Certification and Accreditation (C&A)
- Incident response
- Security policy development and implementation
- Vulnerability resolution support
- Security awareness training
- HIPAA compliance
- Attack and penetration testing
- Legal compliance
- ISATRP Management

Please feel free to visit our website at www.securityhorizon.com, or contact us via email at info@securityhorizon.com or phone at 719-488-4500